Find a Class

* Children and Teens

*

* A class for teens or children will give the opportunity to learn essential skills for successful drawing and painting, such as using proportion and understanding perspective. A class also offers the chance to express individual ideas and creativity through the use of different materials and methods. Lessons are focused on learning but in a friendly, nurturing art studio.

Students have received arts awards, high level art grades at school and have been accepted to Central St Martins art school.
